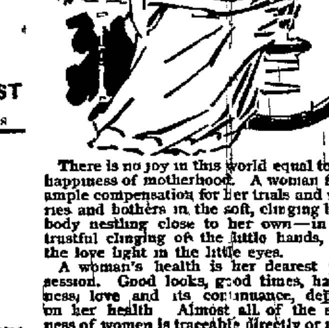
He will assume the duties of the office next Monday Assistant Marshal Gray who has been acting as marshal during the vacancy resumed his former position



There is no joy in this world equal to the happiness of motherhood. A woman finds ample compensation for her trials and worries and bothers in the soft, clinging little body nestling close to her own—in the trustful clinging of the little hands, and the love light in the little eyes.

A woman's health is her dearest possession. Good looks, good times, happiness, love and its continuance, depend on her health Almost all of the sickness of women is traceable directly or indirectly to some derangement of the organs distinctly feminine Troubles of this kind are often neglected because a very natural and proper modesty keeps women away from physicians, whose insistence upon examination and local treatment is generally as useless as it is common Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do more for them than 99 doctors in 100. It will do more than the hundredth doctor can unless he prescribes it. It is a prescription of Doctor Pierce, who for 30 years has been chief consulting physician of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo.

"I lost six babies by untimely birth In the eighth month of my seventh pregnancy, as usual, I was taken ill. The family doctor was called. He said there was no help for me. The baby must be born. I grieved excessively. I persuaded my husband, against the physician's advice, to get me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Four doses quieted my pains. That child was born at full time. It is three years old, and I am the happiest mother in the world."

SENTENCED TO DEATH.

H. H. Holmes Refused a New Trial.

He Receives His Sentence with an Air of Apparent Indifference.

Philadelphia, Nov 30 —H H Holmes was this morning refused a new trial and sentenced to death for the murder of Benjamin F. Pitezel

The opinion denying the accused a new trial was delivered by Judge Arnold it having been concurred in by Judges Thayer Willson and Arnold who heard the application for a new trial. Judge Arnold then pronounced the death sentence

Holmes who had been brought into court to hear the opinion was not affected by the adverse decision and when Judge Arnold in deliberate tones sentenced him to be hanged by the neck until dead the air of apparent indifference which was so manifest throughout the celebrated trial was not deviated from by the alleged multi-murderer

Holmes was then returned to the county prison and a death watch was placed over him The date of execution will be fixed by Governor Hastings The opinion covers 37 type written pages and Judge Arnold occupied an hour in its delivery Every phase of the noted case was gone into and the fifteen points raised by the defendant's counsel in the application for a new trial was disposed of seriatim It is believed that the case will be appealed to the supreme court

SANGUILLY'S DEFENCE

Continued in Case in Which He Is Charged with Being an Agitator

H[illegible] Nov 30 The defence of Sanguilly who claims to be an American citizen and who is accused of having been [illegible] agitator in the rebellion was continued yesterday

His counsel denied that his client had participated in the rebellion and he alleged the severity of the documents produced by the prosecution which contained missed Sanguilly. He declared the appointment of Col Ozers which the prosecution claims was made by Sanguilly was not made by him and that he had nothing whatever to do with the appointment or with the appointment of delegates to the Cuban Junta in New York

He then protested that Sanguilly was entirely innocent of the charge against him but concluded that even were he guilty the [illegible] protocol issued by Captain General Lluga to Betancourt under similar circumstances applied to his client The counsel further [illegible] he who [illegible] is bound [illegible] full as it is contrary to the treaty entered into by Spain and the United States in 1877 a provision of which provides that the secret trial of the citizens of either country

He asked that his client be discharged The defence then closed The judgment of the court is awaited with much interest Counsel for Sanguilly re[illegible] the charges [illegible] this case

Kalamazoo Mich Nov 30 —Chairman [illegible] W Osborne of the mass meeting [illegible] held here recently in the Armenian question has received the following reply from Secretary of State Olney to the resolutions which were forwarded him

I received a copy of the resolutions adopted at a meeting of the citizens of Kalamazoo Mich held at the First Congregational church in regard to the Armenian question. It gives me pleasure to say that this government is taking every possible means through the earnest efforts of the U S minister at Constantinople Alexander W Terrell and the presence of our war vessels in Turkish waters to insure the fulfillment by the Porte of the repeated guarantees it has made respecting the personal security of American citizens residing in Asia Minor and in every quarter of the Turkish [illegible] [illegible]

ANXIOUS TO FIGHT

Dan Stuart on Trail for Corbett and Brady

Chicago Nov 30 —Dan Stuart was in Chicago yesterday on his way to Dallas Tex If Corbett or Brady will sign the papers which I will submit to them there will surely be a fight without interruption said Stuart I have selected a battle ground within 2 miles of El Paso Tex I propose to raise [illegible] I will put up a $20,000 purse if that there will be no interference

The new articles of agreement call for a fight with five ounce gloves to a finish $20,000 or at money and a purse of $20,000 I will endeavor to have the date on or about January 10th All that is now necessary for me is Corbett's signature

The way I can get the men together and this will make up a second purse for George Lavigne and Jack Everhart and thus give two battle events at the same time I am going to camp on the trail of Corbett until Friday until I get their signatures or they show that they will not fight

MINE DISASTER

Work of Recovering Bodies Still Going On

Brewsters N Y Nov 30 —The work of recovering the bodies buried in the debris at the bottom of the Tilly Foster mines by the fall of rock yesterday afternoon discontinued at nightfall last night was resumed at daybreak this morning

The bodies of James Fox, James Clarke and two Italians which were in sight last night were hoisted to the surface about 8 o'clock Contractor Clinton Stephens arrived on the scene at 9 o'clock and after inspecting the walls ordered the work discontinued A large quantity of rock and earth near where the slide of yesterday occurred overhangs and is so dangerous that it will be blasted away before the work of recovering more bodies can be safely resumed

It is now known that three more Italians are buried beneath several feet of debris and as still others have not yet been accounted for the total may reach half a dozen The bodies of these taken out last night P H Mortha, Michael Cannon Tom Fagan, Thomas Dennis and two Italians were taken to their respective homes

The four bodies taken out this morning were in a horribly mangled condition The bodies still remaining in the pit are buried under several feet of debris When the rest of the loose rock will have been blasted away they will be buried still deeper so that it will probably take several days to recover the remains The mine was an object of interest today to the people for miles around and hundreds flocked to the scene out of curiosity

As soon as the excitement will have subsided the work will be pushed forward with vigor The victims who were taken out the last night with more or less serious injuries are doing nicely and all are expected to recover

FIGURES TOO HIGH

Suit Brought to Have Valuation of Certain Property Reduced

DOVER, N. H., Nov. 30. There was a hearing in the case of the Masonic Building Association vs City of Dover before Hon. E G Eastman, of Exeter, referee, at the Court House to-day. Suit is brought to have the valuation of the property reduced from $100,000 to $80,000, the association alleging that assessors appraised this property at too high a figure.

Presque Isle Star-Herald Mr Madigan, who has just returned from quite an extended trip, insists that the times here this season are much better than anywhere he has travelled, and that there is no where in New England that the masses are so well provided for and so comfortable as here

G W Johnson is one of the Presque Isle farmers who believes in variety farming With a farm of some 250 acres he raised this season thirty acres of oats, twenty acres of potatoes, five acres of buckwheat, and cut about sixty tons of hay His oat crop will yield him about 1 300 bushels He has 600 barrels of potatoes in his potato house at the Park hurst siding He believes in not getting discouraged by an "off year" and will plant his usual acreage of potatoes next year

Presque Isle Star Herald Among the other things that many of our people are busy regretting in this fair region is that they allowed themselves to be inveighled into becoming share holders in the various big stock horses that were disposed of some time since at fabulous prices in Aroostook We have not heard of any section where the investment is accounted an unmixed blessing to the community and in several we have heard from the stockholders are gnashing their teeth at their folly In the cases we refer to the horses are receiving but limited patronage and a number have dropped out of each pool so that the liability for the big joint note signed is shared by a comparatively few It is, on the whole, one of the best object-lessons to our people to future caution in their investments, and to take it for granted that most schemes presented to them by the plausible stranger are far more likely to be selfish and money making than philanthropic in their nature

The county commissioners arrived in Caribou Tuesday and after making a thorough examination of the new court house expressed themselves as being very much pleased with it They have accepted the building and allowed the bill of the contractor Mr George McArthur The cost of the building, completed and furnished, is $21 000 It is one of the finest constructed and handsomely furnished public buildings in Maine and is a credit to Aroostook county George McArthur, the contractor is receiving many deserved congratulations because of the excellence of his work

At one of the B & A stations last week, a gentleman stood on the platform carrying on an animated conversation with an acquaintance while the train he was waiting for came in So interested was he that the train pulled out of the station and was some distance away before his attention was called to the fact by his companion who asked him if he had intended to take the train A look of intense disgust spread quickly over his countenance and then the reply came in an emphatic manner, I'm a —— fool Of course I intended to go on that train ——

J H Dow, formerly with Cook Everett & Pennell of Portland, has been in the employ of C M. Roof & Co, liquor dealers of New York There have been reports of a defalcation by Dow A Portland apothecary has a printed statement from the firm declaring that Mr J H Dow was no longer in their employ and that they would not honor any dealings done by him in their name, and giving a statement of this apothecary's indebtedness to them as shown by their books The amount was something over $300 The apothecary's books showed that he owed the firm of C M Roof & Co only about $100 and he has receipts of Mr Dow to show that he had paid to him the balance of money, which the firm had charged Another apothecary in Portland received a similar statement, charging him with something over $100 The fact is that he has paid all his indebtedness to the firm and has Dow's receipts to show for it Another man who has had extensive dealings with C M Roof & Co, has paid Dow about $600 which the firm now charges him with not having paid

Work at Shackford's Head is being rapidly pushed forward by a crew of some fifteen men, one cottage being already boarded in and the roof shingled, while the foundations of the other four are about completed. The groves are being tastefully trimmed, dead trees chopped down, underbrush cleared away and burned, and the work of general clearing up prosecuted, and by spring changes will have been effected that will give a new appearance to this spot designed by Nature to be one of the most beautiful in this part of the State The sea view afforded by its high points is lovely beyond comparison with any other on that side the town, while the pure, fresh air is invigorating and healthful The sale of building lots is giving encouragement to the company, two being sold last week to Boston parties and the deeds for some others are now being drawn up

Eastport Sentinel The shoe factory is practically assured The required amount of money is pledged with the exception of a few hundred dollars which can be raised without much effort, and there is now no reasonable doubt entertained by the promotors of the project but that before Christmas operations will have begun on the plant And this one is not to be all There are in the city to-day, and they can be named, men of ample means who are ready, although having no knowledge of the shoe business, to furnish the capital to equip and run another factory, as a private enterprise when the right man can be found to manage it, and the only reason that this fund has been raised in the way it has, is that it was deemed advisable to do so in order to create a general interest And the committee who assumed this self imposed labor to accomplish this end are to be congratulated on the measure of success attained Before December 1st, the full amount will be pledged, and it is expected that before another issue the agreement between the stockholders will be drawn up, placing everything on a working basis

Since the heavy pieces of plaster fell from the ceiling in the Eastport post office some weeks since, the stucco work of the whole interior has been deemed unsafe and to protect the employes from injury should any more of it fall, planks have been shored up under the cornices, in the post office and lobby also over the stairway leading to the second story

A number of Salvation Army delegates have been in Eastport, and if a hall or any suitable building can be hired they will begin a series of revival meetings They hope to be able to begin operations on Thursday next

The tall chimney at the Eastport electric light station which at one time looked as if it might settle on one side enough to cause it to fall, is now considered all right and the staging will be taken down immediately

THE TROUBLES IN TURKEY

Reports from the Missionaries in Whom Bangor People are Interested

The many friends of the [illegible] in Van, Turkey will be interested in the following letter received [illegible] by Miss Kimball of this city

VAN Nov [illegible]

Dear Friend—It is [illegible] can only send you a hasty word and that because I know you will be very anxious about us So far we are safe but the country is in complete anarchy—thanks to the diplomacy of the Powers We have been in great alarm here but for the moment that [illegible] liable to be on again at any hour More than [illegible] villages around us have been sacked and their inhabitants driven naked out to crowd into our city and tell us [illegible] The people in the city are already as poor as starvation and with [illegible] in addition

If it had not been for our relief work hundreds would have already starved My money is all gone and I [illegible] running on at the rate of [illegible] a week—I am in a good deal of worry and [illegible] turning stones to see if I can [illegible] anywhere For a fortnight all trade has ceased and to-day the Armenians are bringing their goods out of the market in fear of trouble

Our Vali is a good man but [illegible] he has resigned on the plea that he cannot govern and well may he resign God only knows what will be the outcome, but some change for better or worse must be at hand You will know perhaps before you receive this letter * * * * Will you let [illegible] know that I am all right up to date and trust in a kind Providence to be [illegible] through [illegible] With great love to all

Yours
GRACE N KIMBALL

A report for which the New York Tribune is responsible that [illegible] W Howard, (who was sent out by Dr [illegible] journal with money for Van) had been murdered proves to be false The Boston [illegible] of yesterday says that [illegible] telegram was received from him on Friday from Julfa Persia where he was trying to get an escort to Van but was not able to procure one at any price He had offered $500 in vain a striking evidence of the disordered and dangerous [illegible] of the country

The Ashland Branch

Twenty seven miles of track have been laid on the Ashland branch of the Bangor & Aroostook railroad the crew having completed so much of the line on Saturday The entire line from Oakfield on the main line of the road to Ashland is 43 miles long and the portion beyond the 27 miles of track already laid has been prepared for the rail so that the track laying can be pushed rapidly as possible

It is expected that Masardis will be reached with the new track at the end of this week and Ashland at the close of the week following The new line will be operated for regular service about the first of January and will open a very considerable territory The new line will be of very material advantage to the towns through which it passes and the revenue to the B & A railroad from the freight and passenger traffic will no be a small sum

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE DAILY WEIG will be sent to persons going out of town for any period of time and address changed as often as desired at 15 cents per week, postage paid.

The members of the Memorial Association are requested to meet at the Memorial Parlors to-day at 4 o'clock P. M. A general attendance is desired.

The '98 debating club at the High school is growing in membership and much interest is taken in the debates which are profitable and pleasant.

The Ladies' Auxiliary extend a cordial invitation to the members of St. John's Total Abstinence society as well as to St. Joseph's Temperance Union for this evening's reception at the basement hall of St. John's church.

The Bangor Grammar school eleven defeated the East Side team at Maplewood Saturday by a score of 12 to 0. The touchdowns were made by Curtis, Treat and Chase. The work of Leighton, Burrill, Davis and Baker was noticeably good.

After the week of opera by the Gilbert Opera Company this week the next attraction at the Opera House will be "The Fatal Card," on Monday and Tuesday nights of next week. The play has had long runs in large cities and is said to be a strong one.

At the men's meeting yesterday afternoon at the Young Men's Christian Association, Mr. H. H. Andrews added to the interest of the service by playing upon a symphony organ which came from his store. It is an excellent instrument and makes very harmonious music.

As Dr. Murch and another man were driving on Main street yesterday forenoon, the horse jumped to one side and tipped the carriage over. The occupants were thrown out but fortunately were not injured, except slight bruises. The horse ran a short distance but was quickly stopped. The carriage was considerably damaged.

The High School Cadets are holding special drills for their visit to Oldtown later in the month and are in good trim for the event. They have accepted an invitation to give an exhibition drill in connection with an entertainment which is to be given at City Hall in that city and without doubt the Oldtown people will be pleased with it.

The C. G. Sterns' Lumber Co. have shut down their mill at East Hampden for the season. During the past summer about 15,000,000 feet of lumber have been sawed and of this amount all but about 300,000 feet has been shipped. The Sterns' company have three vessels chartered and hope to load them before the river freezes over.

The month of November which has just come to a close presented some fine weather, especially at the end. While in some States there have been blocking snow storms, there have been but two snow falls, each being only sufficient to cover the ground. In extreme Northern Maine the last snow fall enabled the sleighs to come out for a few hours, but the sleighing was poor and the snow soon disappeared.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers had one of their regular meetings in this city yesterday. The members arrived in the city on the paper train and took dinner at the different hotels. In the afternoon they held their business meeting at G. A. R. Hall, Columbia street, with twenty-two present. Only the general routine business was transacted. They left on the evening trains on their return to their homes.

Today will be played the first game of indoor polo ever seen in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. This game is played by teams of five, using what is known as a gas ball which is five inches in diameter. There are two rushers, a center and half back and goal. The game is played by driving the ball between goals with the hand. The ball cannot be held in the hand or kicked. It is a very fine game and one that takes science and wind.

Besides the debate at the meeting of the Seminary rhetorical society to be held tomorrow evening, the following interesting programme will be rendered: Song, "Mrs. Lofty & D," Mrs. F. H. Chase; duet, "The Fisher Boy's Lament," with guitar and banjo, Mrs. Chase and Miss Roxie Fogg; solo, "Sleep Little Baby of Mine," Ella May Gordon; solo, "Now Was I Wrong," Miss Fogg; reading, "Hannah Jane," by Will Carleton, Mrs. Chase.

The Penobscot Exchange passed into the hands of the new proprietors, Messrs. Fred G. Moon and James W. Cratty, Saturday night. The name of the new firm will be Moon & Cratty. The senior member has an extended acquaintance with the traveling men. He has been at the Bangor House for many years. Mr. Cratty has been connected with the Bangor House and Bangor Exchange for several years and is well acquainted with the business.

Prof. L. E. Warren, of Colby, gave the second lecture in the course of four upon the subject of architecture, before the Monday Club Saturday afternoon at the lecture room of the Young Men's Christian Association building and the interest shown in the lecture was demonstrated by the attendance of over one hundred ladies. The lecture was one of much profit and was very entertaining as well. It was illustrated by a large number of fine photographs which were excellent aids to the subject at hand, bringing the various buildings, etc., realistically before the mind. The next lecture will be on Saturday, December 7th, at the same time and place and it will be pleasantly anticipated.

The sportsmen have one more month in which to hunt big game and many will take advantage of the time; but the number will, of course, not be nearly as large as during October, which is the part of the year which attracts the most sportsmen. When the weather begins to grow cold, when the snow comes and when the streams, rivers and lakes begin to freeze, the bulk of the sportsmen start homeward. Those who do not mind the cold, who desire to hunt in greater safety, owing to the less crowded condition of the woods, and who have comfortable camps, stay through December and have a fine time. Big game is plenty and it is only necessary to go to the right places to find it. Close time on partridges has begun.

The contract for the interior finish of the fine summer house of Mr. J. M. Etterlions, of Germantown, Pa., to be erected at Bar Harbor and, to cost $30,000, has been awarded to Morse & Co. of this city. The company now has five summer cottages at Bar Harbor, which will be finished in the interior by them. One of the most costly jobs is the elegant Bowen cottage at Hull's Cove, which is plastered and ready for the windows. This house will cost $45,000 and the stable with it $10,000. Morse & Company will furnish the windows, columns and stairways. These columns are beautiful work, the seven large ones being of Michigan pine and the twelve small ones of native pine, solid and bored. Morse & Company now have work enough on hand to keep a full crew working all winter. They are now figuring on the interior of a $10,000 cottage for Mr. Thorpe, which is to be built on Greenlief's Island, near Northeast

The steamer Penobscot arrived in port yesterday soon after 2 P. M. and leaves at the usual hour to-day.

On Monday, December 30th, the Unitarian Memorial Association will give a party in the Memorial Parlors. An attractive programme for entertainment is being prepared.

The Water Board will grant a hearing to hotel proprietors and others interested in the subject matter of meter rates to be charged for water at the Common Council room, City Hall, on Wednesday December 4th, at 7.30 P. M.

Tuesday afternoon and evening of December 3rd the ladies of the Crusade will have a sale of aprons, sofa pillows and fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts at Mrs. Perkins', 336 Union street. The public are cordially invited.

Officer Bickford on Saturday arrested James Coleman, of Boston, on the charge of the larceny of a pair of shoes from the shop of David Schneider, the shoemaker, on Broad street, and locked him up to await trial before the Municipal Court.

The annual meeting the Bangor Fuel Society will be held in the committee room, City Hall, to-day at 3 P. M. All subscribers are considered members of the society and are invited to attend the meeting. The officers will be elected and the reports submitted.

The river was skimmed over with ice yesterday morning, the weather having been quite cold the night previous. The ice was thin, however and did not offer any obstacle to the Boston steamer which came into port in the afternoon. It has now reached the time of year when the annual freeze up may be expected at almost any time, although it does not generally come until further along in the month.

The lecture in the Central Club course this evening will be by Edward C. Swett, Esq., who will present his finely illustrated "Picturesque Maine." The people can feel confident that a rich treat awaits those who will listen to the lecture. During the season many new views have been secured by Mr. Swett and a very interesting entertainment may be expected. The pupils of the public schools will be admitted to the galleries at reduced prices. Regular tickets at 25 cents and scholars at 15 cents are now on sale.

Enjoyable "Smoke Talk."

The Tarratine Club have had several enjoyable entertainments at their rooms on Saturday evenings this season but none more so than that of last Saturday when Capt. W. S. Edgerly, U. S. A., military instructor at the State College, gave a "smoke talk" on the Custer massacre. There was a large attendance of members who had supper early in the evening. A fine piano has been placed in the rooms and Mr. Wilbur Cochrane presided at the instrument, playing numerous brilliant selections.

There are many excellent singers in the club and they gathered around the piano and sang familiar airs. Afterward all gathered in the billiard room and listened with great interest to Capt. Edgerly's graphic and thrilling description of the stirring scenes at the time of the massacre. The speaker was enthusiastically applauded and complimented upon his effort, which was not of a studied nature, however, his talk being of the easy conversational sort. The remainder of the evening was passed socially.

Battleship Maine arrived at Newport, R. I., from Portland, shortly before two o'clock Saturday afternoon.

DELIGHTFUL MEXICAN TOURS.

Mexico, with its grand natural scenery, its semi-tropical climate, its interesting history, and its strange civilization, can be seen to the best possible advantage in connection with Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb's excursions. Those enterprising tourist managers are forming parties to leave Boston, Jan. 28 and Feb. 13. The travelers will stop at various places in the Southern States, spending a week in the City of Mexico, and making trips down into the tropics over both the Tehuacan and the Vera Cruz lines. On the return California is to be visited. The journey will be made in a special Pullman vestibuled train with a dining car, and only a limited number of passengers will be taken. A full description of the tour will be sent by Raymond & Whitcomb, 296 Washington street, Boston, to any address, in application.

ELKS MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Sacred Session Held Sunday Evening at the Lodge Rooms.

It is the custom for the Elks all over the land to meet the first Sunday in December to eulogize the memory of departed members in a memorial service which is called a "sacred session." There are 300 lodges of the order in the United States and each held a memorial service on Sunday.

That of the Bangor lodge was held last evening at 8 o'clock at the lodge rooms on Main street, with a large attendance of the members. Appropriate addresses were made by Mayor C. L. Snow and Messrs. T. J. Hurley and H. N. Hatch and they were listened to with much interest and close attention. The musical portion of the service was finely presented by Mr. E. J. Pooler, who sang "The Palms" and Mr. Wilbur Cochrane, organist.

M. S. C. Winter Lecture Course.

The second six weeks' winter course of lectures will open at the Maine State College on the first Tuesday of January, 1896, and young farmers and young men who propose to be farmers, will find them very advantageous. Last winter, while the class was not a large one, it was of excellent quality and the time was very profitably spent as all agreed who attended the course.

The pretension is not made that in six weeks it is possible to give a young man a comprehensive understanding of science in its applications to agriculture. Only a few of the fundamental and important principles and facts can be discussed. It is possible, however, in doing this to give some clear views as to the way in which science is helping agriculture, besides imparting an actual knowledge of the use of fertilizers, the feeding of animals, the practice of dairying and the management of fruit, that shall be of direct practical value.

There are certain convincing reasons why a large class should attend the courses of lectures:

The instruction is made clear and practical. Very little time is spent in discussing mere scientific theories as such, however valuable such discussions certainly are.

The means and methods discussed have already become an essential part of the best agricultural practice. No farmer should consider himself properly informed who is ignorant of the great principles of soil fertility, the manufacture and care of farm manures, the composition and manufacture of commercial fertilizers, the composition and use of cattle foods, the chemistry and best methods of the dairy, and the materials and methods of spraying for the prevention of injurious fungi and insects.

Nearly all progress in agriculture is now being secured through an application of scientific knowledge. If any one thinks this a strong statement, let him remember that much of what is known of the principles of fertility, of the necessary food for plants, of the office of the compounds of cattle foods, of the wastes in dairy practice, of the life history of injurious insects and plants, and of many other matters very important to agriculture, is due to the labors of scientific men.

In short, modern knowledge is essential to present success in any line. Engineers, mechanics, manufacturers, physicians and all other classes of business and professional men, only succeed by keeping on the alert for every new principle of fact which they can make useful in their work.

This instruction has been provided for a special purpose at great public expense. The schools of agriculture have been established and endowed because the farmers have asked that this should be done.

The expense to the individual of the course of lectures is small. No tuition is charged and the use of the dairy and other apparatus is free. Outside of the traveling expenses the cost for the six weeks need not be over $25.

More applications for trained butter makers are received than can be filled. If it were known that the college could supply butter and cheese factory experts it would be easily possible to place a certain number of young men in good positions.

The class of '96 will be limited to fifty. Young men will be registered in the order of their applications. Descriptive circulars and any other needed information will be sent on application to Prof. W. H. Jordan.

Robbed the Dummy.

Saturday afternoon a man who was passing the clothing store of J. A. Robinson & Son, knocked over a dummy at the door, which was used for the display of overcoats, coolly transferred the fine overcoat which it contained to his own back and walked off. As soon as the loss of the coat was noticed the theft was reported to police headquarters and Officer Bartlett soon started out to find the thief if possible.

In a boarding house on Broad street he found a man who had just such an overcoat as the one described and the officer took the fellow to the police station just three-quarters of an hour after the theft was reported. The overcoat was identified as the one taken from the dummy and was returned to the firm. The fellow proved to be William Brown, of Boston, who had just come out of jail after serving a sentence. He will be before the Municipal Court.

A. O. H. Officers.

The annual meeting of the Ancient Order of Hiberians was held yesterday afternoon and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

County President—P. O'Donohue.

The installation will occur on the first Sunday in January.

Municipal Court.

In the Municipal Court Saturday William M. Page was tried for assault and battery upon Fred Gordon. The alleged assault was the outcome of a dispute upon the street regarding a meat bill which Page said Gordon owed him. The dispute became so hot that Page, it was alleged, jumped from his carriage and struck Gordon with his whip. The result of the trial was that Page was fined $20 and costs and he appealed.

Edwin Crocker was tried for cruelty to a horse and was discharged.

William Noonan was given a hearing upon the charge of assault upon Joseph Kominsky and was discharged.

OHIO RIVER FALLING.

What the Coalmen Say Concerning Their Fleets.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 30. Advices from points along the Ohio are to the effect that the river is falling rapidly. The progress of the fall is so great that the coalmen say the fleets from Pittsburg with nine millions bushels of coal cannot possibly reach Cincinnati on schedule time unless another rain sets in within the next day or two. Considerable coal is already reported lost and the damage seems to be increasing every hour.

Negroes Attempt to Lynch Him but He is Rescued by the Police.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 30. Alexander Royle, who murdered his mistress, Jessie Sims, yesterday morning, was captured in East St. Louis last night. He was taken to the morgue in this city this morning to identify the body and a crowd of four hundred negroes attempted to lynch him, but he was rescued by a squad of fifty policemen after a hard struggle with the mob.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Compromise Reached on Guard Ship Question.

LONDON, Dec. 2. The Telegraph publishes a despatch from Vienna saying it is reported that a compromise was reached between the foreign representatives at Constantinople and the Sultan regarding the guard ship question. The Sultan, it is said, will grant the firmans necessary for the entry of the guard ships into the Bosphorus on condition that the powers will not use them unless the lives of Christians are seriously endangered.

The despatch adds that Russia scouts the idea of a European conference being held on the Turkish question.

Wouldn't See Him.

ROME, Dec. 1. A semi-official telegram from Constantinople says that the American Admiral now at Smyrna recently asked permission to visit the Sultan on board his flagship. The request was refused.

Terrible Massacres in Madagascar.

LONDON, Nov. 30. A despatch has been received from Antananario, under date of November 22, which confirms the report of the massacre of missionaries in Madagascar. It says that 2,000 natives yesterday attacked the missionary station here. Missionary Johnson and wife and child were murdered and their bodies horribly mutilated. A Miss Clark, with them, is safe. The mob was actuated by a feeling of hostility against Europeans and further attacks are feared.

An "Affair of Honor."

BUDA PEST, Nov. 30. The duel between Herr Perczel, Hungarian Minister of the Interior, and Herr Andreansky, member of the Diet, growing out of the language used by the minister in the course of a debate in the House with Herr Andreansky, took place to-day. The minister, who was the challenged party, chose swords as the weapons. Herr Andreansky was wounded in the head, ear and arm. His injuries are severe. Herr Perczel temporarily resigned his portfolio to accept the challenge.

AWFUL BUTCHERY.

Terrible Tale of Bloodshed From Kentucky.

Farmer Kills his Wife, Man Who Broke up His Home and Others.

Posse Surround Place of Refuge And Finally Kill the Desperado.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., Dec. 1. The wife of Orville Eals, a farmer living near Browningsville, recently deserted him for John Fields, a tenant on the place.

Eals induced his wife to return and Tuesday he shot Fields, death ensuing next day. Eals, well armed took refuge in a hut. A large posse went in pursuit last night. At dawn to-day the posse made a rush for the hut and Eals began firing, one man being killed and two men wounded.

The party effected an entrance and killed Eals. Lying on the floor was found the mutilated body of Mrs. Eals, almost nude and covered with ugly wounds, while near by lay a bloody hatchet.

PRAYERS FOR INGERSOLL.

Were Not Offered in Some Places Despite the Announcement.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. Today was the time designated for special prayers in behalf of Col. Robt. G. Ingersoll by the Christian Endeavorers of the United States and Canada, in which it was announced that the Salvation Army was to participate. At the Salvation Army national headquarters nothing was known regarding it.

H. A. Kimports, secretary of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the State of New York and this city, told a reporter that the Endeavorers here and throughout the State would not offer any such special prayers.

No Prayers at Kingston, Ont.

KINGSTON, Ont., Dec. 1. There was no public gathering at which Christian Endeavorers prayed today for the conversion of Col. Ingersoll. The daily papers and various clergymen discouraged the suggestion.

JOHNSON EXPLAINS.

Baptist Preacher Tells What he Did Say About Minister Terrell.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 30. Rev. J. T. M. Johnson, the Baptist preacher whose statements regarding U. S. Minister Terrell have created considerable criticism, has given the following letter to the press:

"Last Sunday evening I delivered a lecture in my church in this city on the Armenian question, in which I referred to unfavorable reports I had heard of Minister Terrell during by recent seven weeks of travel through the Turkish dominions.

"To-day I received a copy of a New York paper in which I am quoted as saying that Terrell has joined the Mohammedan church and that he is aiding in the persecution of the christians, that Terrell prevents true reports being sent out and is sending out false reports himself. All of these statements are false. I did say I believed Minister Terrell is in sympathy with the Turkish government and that everywhere we went the American consuls and missionaries told us the same story.

"What I said in my lecture with regard to Terrell is embodied in the petition gotten up by the party of American tourists of whom I was one, which petition was forwarded to Secretary of State Olney and set forth the facts on which Terrell's removal was requested. This petition was signed by the entire party, which represented a number of citizens of different States."

YE GODS, DELIVER US!

Zella Nicolausis Seeker of Notoriety to Write a Book and go on the Stage.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 30. A representative of the United Press interviewed Zella Nicolausis, tonight regarding the settlement of her suit against George Gould to recover $40,000. Among other things she said: "A settlement has been made by Gould but I do not care to state the amount. But this I will say—I have decided to write a book. I will tell of my life. I intend to study harder than ever to become an actress. Some of the newspapers roasted me unmercifully when I made my debut as an actress. They should have been more patient with me. The newspapers also have taken my character away from me—the dearest thing a young girl can have."

STHMU'S TRAFFIC

Increased in Recent Months.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. A report received at the department of state from Consul Wiquain at Panama says that in 1893 and 1894, before the Wilson tariff bill went into effect the transit of traffic across the isthmus from San Francisco direct to Europe was practically nothing but since the law went into effect this transit business tells altogether another story and foots up for the last four months, July to October, inclusive, a total of 2,354 tons, this transit traffic now amounting to more than ever before in the history of the Panama railroad.

BAD STATE OF AFFAIRS

In Criminal Court Circles in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30. The grand jury to-day returned indictments against Judge James C. Moise, one of the two judges of the criminal district court, for slander and oppression in office. The indictment grew out of an attempt last Thursday by District Attorney Butler to enter a nolle prosequi in the case of Henry Eier, a capitalist, who had been tried and convicted of perjury committed in trying to hide matters concerning the purchase of the New Orleans traction franchise.

Since his conviction Eier has confessed and it is believed is vitally essential in the trial of Maurice J. Hart. Judge Moise refused to permit the nolle prosequi to be entered and a heated colloquy between the court and the district attorney followed, in which the court was led into saying that he viewed the conduct of the district attorney's office with suspicion, and committed the district attorney to jail for 24 hours for contempt of court. The latter official and attorneys of Henri Eier brought the episode to the attention of the Grand Jury which was much prejudiced against Maurice J. Hart, with the above result.

Today is the last day of the three months' term of the grand jury and according to custom they handed in a written report to Judge Ferguson of section "A," as Judge Moise sits in section "B." Judge Ferguson refused to receive their report. It is understood the report reflected severely on the alleged interference of Gov. Foster in city affairs.

WEALTHY BUFFALO CITIZEN

Found Dead in His Room—Believed That He Has Been Foully Dealt With.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 30. David H. Eckley, 76 years old, and one of the wealthiest men in this city, was found dead in his room yesterday morning at his residence on Prospect avenue, one of the most aristocratic thoroughfares in the resident district. A bullet hole was discovered in his head and the body was lying in a pool of blood.

He and his wife had been living apart for a long time and there was nobody in the house with him except an aged house keeper, and she was hysterical and unable to give an intelligent account of the affair to those who called at a late hour last night. It is believed by the police that Eckley was foully dealt with as he always had a large amount of money and negotiable securities in the house.

WHERE IS THE CUP?

Baroness Berzeny Sues Mrs. Vanderbilt to Recover Value.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. A suit has been brought in the city court by the Baroness Blanche de Berzeny of Hungary, against Mrs. Elen Vanderbilt to recover $400, the value of a Tantalus cup. The Baroness alleges that shortly before the marriage of Consuelo Vanderbilt to the Duke of Marlborough Mrs. Vanderbilt requested that the Baroness send the cup and other articles of bric-a-brac to her for inspection, under the agreement that if she was pleased with them she would
